Excise Police Cite 15, Arrest 2 at Indy Concert

INDIANAPOLIS (August 15) – The Indiana State Excise Police cited 15 people and jailed two during last night's Unity Tour concert at White River State Park.

Excise officers cited nine people, including one 16-year-old, for possession of marijuana. They cited three people for illegal possession or consumption of alcohol. Excise officers also charged three adults with furnishing or providing alcohol to a minor. They also cited three juveniles for possession of tobacco.

Two females were incarcerated and preliminarily charged with possession of marijuana.

Last night's Unity Tour 2012 concert featured 311, Slightly Stoopid and The Aggrolites.

Indiana State Excise Police officers are the enforcement division of the Indiana Alcohol & Tobacco Commission. While excise officers have the authority to enforce any state law, they focus primarily on alcohol, tobacco and related violations.

All criminal defendants are to be presumed innocent until, and unless, proven guilty beyond a reasonable doubt in a court of law.
